

Extract from the Welsh Government guidance (link below) with regard to worship:

Last checked: 21st October 2020

The information below relates to the firebreak lockdown in Wales, which begins at 6.00pm on Friday 23rd October, and ends on Monday 9th November.

<https://gov.wales/coronavirus-firebreak-frequently-asked-questions>

Places of worship, marriages and civil partnerships, cemeteries and funerals

What are the rules for religious services?

Places of worship will not be open to the public, other than for wedding or civil partnership ceremonies or funerals, where people can attend at the invitation of the organiser. Please see the guidance on funerals for more information.

Ministers may access the place of worship to broadcast (without a congregation) an act of worship or funeral, whether over the internet or as part of a radio or television broadcast.