

Small can be beautiful too

– exploring effective resources and repertoire for smaller choirs and singing groups

St Nicolas' Church, Church Lane, Cranleigh, GU6 8AR

Sunday, 26th May 2019

3.30 for 3.45pm start. Service at 6.30pm. End by 7.30pm.

Whilst all choirs are more than welcome, Hugh Morris, the RSCM's new Director will lead a session looking at music that 'smaller' (mainly non-SATB) choirs can easily sing on their own (e.g. SAMen, 2-part, as well as more simple SATB music). The afternoon will end with Evensong at 6.30pm. This is an unrobed event.

Parking – the Church car park (30 cars) is on first come, first served basis! The public Village Way car park is nearby and, at the time of writing, free on Sundays.

Advance booking is essential (to ensure music is available for all who attend). Please complete the entry form (here) no later than Friday, 17th May to advise your attendance. If booking as an individual, please advise your voice part, and, if booking for a choir group, the name of the group and number of each voice part attending.

Payment to be made on-line before 18/05/19 (to include loan of music and light refreshments) - adults £10, U18's free. Bank details are "RSCM Guildford Area" - sort code 40-52-40 account 00031038. Please ensure you name your church in the 'reference' section.

N.B. Under 18s must be accompanied by an adult from their church and a Parental Consent Form (overleaf) completed and handed in before the event starts.
