

SALISBURY STANFORD SINGING WEEKEND

at Sarum St Martin Church
1 St Martin's Church Street
Salisbury, SP1 2HY

Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th September 2024

SALISBURY COME and SING WEEKEND :

A weekend of singing Stanford, Rathbone and High Victorian hymns led by Prof Jeremy Dibble of Durham University.

Saturday morning rehearsal workshop, lunch, hymn singing session, followed by piano recital and black tie dinner, and performance in Sunday morning service at Sarum St Martin Church.

Saturday 14 September

9.30am-1.00pm Singing Workshop with Professor Jeremy Dibble, Emeritus Professor of Music, Durham, preparing Stanford Mass in C op.115 and Rathbone's 'Rejoice in the Lord Always', includes coffee and light lunch.

2.00-4.00pm Musically Illustrated talk on the Great Victorian Hymns by Professor Jeremy Dibble, noted expert on Stanford and British and Irish music of that era. Singing in 4-part harmony, followed by tea and cake.

4.30-6.00pm Piano Recital. Allan Schiller, international concert pianist, plays Mozart, Haydn, Bach, Scarlatti and more.

7.30-10.00pm White Hart Hotel: Black tie, champagne reception and 3 course dinner and coffee with after dinner speech by Allan Schiller.

Sunday 15 September

9.15-10.15am Rehearsal

10.30am Choral Eucharist at Sarum St Martin including the Stanford Mass in C and Rathbone.

Full weekend programme - £149

Saturday ticket (exclude only the dinner) £85.

Dinner only £65

Tickets phil@withcheerfulvoice.org.uk

Contact Naomi King 0786 227 7071

www.withcheerfulvoice.org.uk

St Martins Church, by JMW Turner, Cathedral in the background

Promoted by the Hymn Singing Society

